

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) Award

The Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) Award recognizes staff, faculty, or teams who demonstrate positive interactions with others and respect for differing backgrounds and points of view within the University community.

Nominees should actively promote the concept of diversity, equity, and inclusion by positively enhancing or contributing to the overall environment of the University and by improving cross-cultural understanding.

Criteria

Teams, or individual staff, faculty, and administrators who demonstrate a high regard for diversity, equity, and inclusion through the following:

- A commitment to the spirit of diversity.
- Leadership through positive interaction between persons of different cultural backgrounds.
- Behavior that illustrates commitment to inclusion of persons within the institution who are members of under-represented groups.
- Aligns actions and decisions with the University's strategic goals, mission, and direction.

Eligibility

All full-time and part-time faculty and staff members are eligible for this nomination.

Nomination Process

Nominations may be made by staff, faculty, or administrators at any level. Nomination forms may be accessed electronically (PDF format) at <http://hr.fullerton.edu/universityawards> or they may be picked up in the Division of Human Resources, Diversity and Inclusion (CP 700).

Nominations will be accepted until 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, February 20, 2018.

Winning nominations will be bound with a letter of congratulations and announced at the University Awards Ceremony on April 19, 2018.

Presentation

The award will be presented by President Virjee at the University Awards Program. Each recipient will receive a monetary award and an engraved plaque.
