RACE:
My Story & Humanity’s Bottom Line

More than a Book.....
It’s an Experience

Lauren Joichin Nile begins her book by introducing what she believes is humanity’s racial bottom line with a compelling account of her personal experiences growing up in 1950’s and 60’s segregated New Orleans. She ends it by sharing what she believes are the specific actions that humanity must take in order to walk into a wiser, more empathetic, compassionate human future beyond racism.

Following the reading, members of the audience will have an opportunity to discuss with Lauren, some of the major themes of her book that were shared during the reading. Likely discussion topics include the fundamental biology of race, unearned privilege, how to unlearn racism and a way forward for society-at-large.
