Spring 2013 Leadership Series

Cal State Fullerton MPPs are invited to a series of three 2-hour workshops designed to provide campus leaders with knowledge and tools to lead individuals, teams, departments, and projects and support the strategic goals of Cal State Fullerton.

How to Flourish in Leadership Roles (UBI 400)
Thursday, April 11th    TSU Gabrielino Room
10:00 a.m.—12:00 p.m.

Participants will learn:
• What people want from work
• Why people stay in a job
• Interpersonal skills
• Characteristics of outstanding leaders
• Practical tips for good managers

Recognizing Excellence in the Workplace (UBI 401)
Monday, April 29th    TSU Gabrielino Room
10:00 a.m.—12:00 p.m.

Participants will learn how to:
• Give people what they need
• Motivate individuals
• Build high performance teams

Facilitated by Robert Foldesi
Interim Associate Vice President for Human Resources

Interested MPPs may register for any or all of the workshops in the series through the training portal or contact:

Marian Sherman
657-278-5107
msherman@fullerton.edu or
Margie McMillan
657-278-4354
mmcmillan@fullerton.edu
or x 2115

They Said I Said What? Effective Communication as a Manager (UBI 402)
Tuesday, May 7th    TSU Gabrielino Room
10:00 a.m. —12:00 p.m.

Participants will learn:
• Why it is so hard to communicate effectively
• Common features of effective communication
• Successful communication practices

Cosponsored by
Division of Administration and Finance UBI
Leadership Development Program Alumni Association