This past year marked a unique time at Cal State Fullerton and in our history. Our students, faculty, and staff were cast into the throes of a global pandemic, along with our community, families, and nation. Across all our sister campuses, industries, and walks of life we all had one thing in common—we had to come together to find new ways to move forward. Our campus worked quickly to maintain the continuity of our academic mission and operations and to safeguard the health and well-being of all Titans who call CSUF home. I could not be prouder of the leadership shown by our amazing faculty and staff who displayed flexibility, resiliency, and consideration as we adapted to new modalities of working. I’ve seen so many departments and individuals support each other any way they could—as a result we’ve been able to acclimate to a mostly virtual environment and offer our students a quality experience as they wrapped up the spring 2019 semester. Certainly, It Takes a Titan to persevere, adapt and care. I am grateful for the dedication of our Titan family. Your passion for higher education and our institution shows and is a testament to why CSUF can claim accolades such as being among the Top 5 percent of universities in a national list of “Best Colleges in America,” by Money magazine, No. 13 on Money’s list of “Most Transformative Colleges,” and No. 22 on the list of “Best Public Colleges.” In this annual report, you will find Human Resources Diversity, & Inclusion highlights during the past 2019-2020 fiscal year. From several signature events that pivoted to virtual modalities such as the University Awards Program, What Brings Us Together Luncheon, and Bring a Child to Work Day; to the many new health and wellness virtual offerings to assist Titans from home; to community building conversations centered around social justice that allowed Titans to heal through dialogue; I am proud of what our division has accomplished.

This past year we embraced technology more than ever and came together through times of crisis. Through it all, we were and are here to support you throughout your career at CSUF.

DAVID FORGUES, PH.D., SHRM-SCP
Vice President

CUPA-HR Western Region Higher Ed HR Rock Star Award Recipient

Vice President Forgues received the Higher Ed HR Rock Star Award from the Western Region of the College and University Professional Association for Human Resources. This award recognizes an individual who, while serving in the first five years of a higher education HR career, has made a significant impact. Although he began his career at CSUF in Student Affairs, Vice President Forgues was appointed vice president of HRDI in January 2017 and then selected for the permanent position after a national search in May 2017. The awards selection committee noted that his varied background contributed to his willingness to consider new ideas and to take risks. It also remarked that he has fostered strong ties with the campus community and championed a variety of innovative programs and initiatives. Examples include Titan Recognition Week—which honors faculty and staff with special events, tickets to sporting events, campus discounts and special “behind the scenes” tours of different areas of the campus, culminating in the university’s annual University Awards Program — and the What Brings Us Together luncheons, where individuals gather to meet others from different departments and backgrounds.

When the COVID-19 pandemic hit, HRDI played an integral role in the campus wide transition to a mainly virtual environment in March 2020. HRDI employees across all departments within the division worked rapidly to implement new programs, guidelines, and ways to support campus employees during the sudden transition. Newly developed COVID-19 resources included new leave programs, a temporary telecommute policy, wellness resources, and more frequent communication to the campus with bi-weekly news and updates, containing campus COVID-19 updates. HRDI worked diligently to ensure all programs, policies, and communication followed State, Federal and CDC guideline and compliance. In collaboration with several other divisions and departments, HRDI also served as a partner in campus working groups, creating policies, protocols, and communication to support both remote and on-campus employees during the pandemic.

COVID-19 Leaves
HRDI implemented leaves related to COVID-19 for employees affected by the pandemic, including Temporary Paid Administrative Leave (CPAL), Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA), Non-Telecommuting Workers Leave (NTWL), and Coronavirus Temporary Leave Program (TLP).

Manager Business Continuity Meetings
The office of the Vice President hosted campus continuity meetings with campus managers on Zoom every Friday. Members of the HRDI people leadership team stayed connected with and shared important campus, human resources, and COVID-19 updates with campus management, face-to-face.

Risk Management Protocols Update
Risk Management developed protocols for immigration status, volunteers, foreign travel, special events, subpoenas, and public records act requests to ensure consistent responses in a mostly remote work environment. In collaboration with the Study Abroad Office, Risk Management made recommendations concerning the cancellation of study abroad programs and worked to bring faculty and students abroad home safely during the height of the pandemic.

Titan Faculty and Staff Emergency Fund
In response to COVID-19, the Titan Faculty and Staff Emergency Fund was created to provide support for CSUF staff and faculty affected by a disaster, such as COVID-19 that could adversely affect them and their families as they serve the campus and our students. HRDI processed applications and reconciled awards.

COVID-19 Communication

DIVERSITY, INCLUSION & EQUITY

Since its formation, the division of Human Resources, Diversity and Inclusion, has operated with the mission to provide quality human resource services for Titan employees under the direction of two imperative touchstones – Diversity and Inclusion. Our people strive to create a community of belonging in everything we do for both the employees and students we serve. Like our diverse student body, our workforce and culture must reflect that same diversity. Our goal is to embrace and respect the differences that make up our campus community while supporting and striving to achieve the University’s objective of recruiting and retaining a highly qualified and diverse faculty and staff. We have worked harder than ever before to offer the resources, training, workshops, and support our Titan community needs. We strive to reach our vision of real equity and inclusion in the work that we do everyday. DIEP created and implemented new learning opportunities and shifted to the virtual environment while meeting our campus community building needs. We remain committed to building an equity minded campus, embracing diversity, uplifting social justice, and ensuring that the campus community addresses self care needs. You belong here, and you are our Titan family.
DIVERSITY, EQUITY & INCLUSION

COMPOSITIONAL DIVERSITY OF THE WORKFORCE

Belonging at CSUF
Since implementing the 2013-2018 strategic plan, HRDI has continued to enhance our diverse hiring practices by increasing faculty and staff hiring efforts with concentrated attention to those from historically underrepresented groups. To further this commitment, we have expanded our efforts to provide diverse programming, education, and strategies throughout the recruitment and hiring cycle, promoting the benefits of having a diverse workforce. CSUF has welcomed 344 new tenured or tenure-track faculty members. Overall, faculty diversity of tenured and tenure-track faculty increased. Also, the number of underrepresented permanent staff increased. The total staff population is more diverse compared to the 2018-2019 academic year.

Self-ID Survey
The Self-ID Survey was administered to faculty and staff to learn more about the needs of the CSUF workforce and identify unmet needs to boost productivity, belonging, and innovation. This survey was voluntary and demographics were used to inform our strategic direction as it relates to employment practices, including ways to make CSUF a coveted place to work.

Faculty of Color Learning Community (FOCLC)
A new faculty program was established. The mission of this newly established faculty program was to provide an institutional structure to support faculty of color in the tenure and promotion process while also focusing on the retention efforts. The program provided a lunch and learn series focusing on a variety of topics to assist faculty of color through their tenure journey, mixer events for community engagement, writing challenges to encourage scholarship; sessions with editors to assist with writing/editing of potential journal articles, and virtual zoom meet-ups. The FOCLC successfully concluded its first semester of programming; 36 Faculty of Color registered to be members of the community. Survey results showed every participant rated the Faculty of Color Learning Community as excellent.

SCADOHE Convening
DIEP hosted the Spring 2020 SCADOHE Convening themed “Inclusivity, Free Speech, and the Election Year.” The event included special guest Michelle Dutchman, who offered a candid and engaging talk designed to help Chief Diversity Officers and Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) professionals navigate the terrain of balancing free speech and inclusivity. The meeting included discussions, action planning for the year ahead and small group problem-solving.

Bias Incidents Response Protocol Task Force
This task force was created to solidify four areas of focus regarding incidents of bias and hate that occur on our campus: communications, prevention, intervention and education. The task force met regularly from March through July 2020. The result of the effort was the establishment of the Campus Climate Response Team that is set to officially convene in the fall 2020 semester.

Titan Recognition Campaign
DIEP launched a social media campaign to recognize employees for their support of the Titan Community through the challenging transition to virtual campus operations and learning. The campaign drew 14 nominations, including three offices that were recognized on the CSUF Diversity social media outlets.

Equity Advocate Workgroup
An equity advocate workgroup was assembled and met twice in the 19-20 fiscal year. The faculty search committee training presentation was revised to incorporate the latest high-impact practices for equity.

Religious Observances Resource for Staff, Faculty & Students
A calendar of religious observances was distributed to the campus community via email and posted on the HRDI website. The campus community is encouraged to remain mindful of religious holidays when conducting meetings, events, and classes.

Inclusive Narratives Social Media Campaign
DIEP launched a social media campaign in July 2020 that featured history not commonly learned through traditional educational avenues. Each week focused on historical events and people from different communities (Black, Latinx, APIDA, Indigenous, LGBTQ, Disabled), and these groups’ contributions to equity and excellence in today’s society.

Conflict Resolution Workshop
The conflict resolution workshop series was offered to help participants manage conflict. The workshop provided tools needed to reflect on individual conflict management style and best practices in resolving conflict in the workplace. This training had the highest attendance all year and became a tool to assist Titans transition from in-person to a virtual environment.

DIEP Learning and Programming Newsletters
DIEP continued their practice of providing regular communication to the campus community regarding available learning opportunities, DEI promising practices, and invitations to community-building programs. Over the year, DIEP distributed eight newsletters to campus to provide this information on the department’s activities and services.
Community Dialogue Series: Critical Conversations

Critical Conversations: Healing Through Community
In partnership with the Black Faculty and Staff Association, DIEP hosted a community dialogue series in June for all campus members to share space, process and heal from anti-Black racist incidents that occurred in local and national communities.

Over 700 Titans- including faculty, staff, and students attended the series.

Critical Conversations: Allyship and Advocacy
Part of the Community Dialogue Series: Critical Conversations; this dialogue was centered on what allyship in action could look like in combating anti-Black racism in our local and national communities. Participants were encouraged to attend these sessions if they were interested in sharing and learning ways that they can be an ally or advocate against racial injustices and discourse. Participants were welcomed to share what examples of allyship could look like and resources on how we can translate our allyship into action.

Critical Conversations: Just Mercy Discussion
Part of the Community Dialogue Series: Critical Conversations; this dialogue encouraged participants to watch the free film “Just Mercy” – a film based on civil rights attorney Bryan Stevenson and his work to free a wrongly accused death row prisoner. For June, Warner Bros. opened access to stream this film for free to discuss racial injustices that have historically existed in the country. This dialogue served as a platform for those who wished to discuss the incidents and themes depicted in the film.

Anti-Racism Resources and Support
In response to anti-black incidents occurring around the country, additional online resources and trainings were posted to the HRDI website, including the Anti-Racism Resources Guide. The guide featured resources collected from fellow Titans in the Critical Conversations June series in a PDF guide. In addition, Assistant Vice President, Bobbie Porter, conducted various consultations and hosted strategy sessions with campus units to develop anti-racism action plans and diversity strategic plans.
Diversity and Inclusion Leadership Academy (DILA)
In spring 2020, DIEP launched the Diversity and Inclusion Leadership Academy (DILA) program, which provides transformative leadership development for 24 participants who strengthened their skills to value, build, and lead diverse and inclusive teams. The academy featured workshops and experiential learning activities for participants to build their capacity to become diversity embracing, inclusive leaders. Upon completion, participants incorporated these newly developed competencies into their leadership toolkit, which contributes to driving inclusivity into our campus culture.

Interfaith Leadership Program
Expanding our diversity agenda, the Interfaith Leadership Program was developed with the mission to start a conversation and increase the ability of faculty, staff and students to engage with not just race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, and gender but also religious and worldview diversity. Participants were called upon to build community and facilitate dialogue about worldviews that are based in religious, spiritual, philosophical, and ethical beliefs and attitudes. The program is slated to continue into the fall 2020 semester.

HRDI Professional Development
DIEP hosted a biweekly webinar series to help employees prepare to sit for one of two nationally recognized HR certifications—SHRM-CP and PHR. Employees were offered training materials, resources and a community of learning with their coworkers during the 8-week program to prepare for the HR Certification course of their choice. A total of 20 HRDI employees participated in the preparation course.

2nd Annual Inclusive Leadership Symposium
In March 2020, the 2nd Annual Inclusive Leadership Symposium brought together over 100 CSUF leaders from across campus who engage in a half-day of learning and development as inclusive leaders. Keynote speaker, Dr. Edna Chu symposium focused on concrete practices, approaches, and frameworks that can assist leaders in their role as diversity change agents in building inclusive working environments. The attendance doubled in the 2nd Annual Inclusive Leadership Symposium since the symposium’s implementation.

Tiered Diversity Certificate Program
To address the campus’s MPP competencies, four workshops were developed and offered to management. The program covered topics relating to probationary employees, staff grievance/complaint process/resolution, faculty/academic employee grievance process for chairs/ads, and performance management.
BELONGING AT CSUF

Affinity Groups: Faculty & Staff Associations
Faculty and Staff Associations (FSA) are affinity groups that help promote opportunities for community building, networking, and providing support to fellow Titans. Current FSAs are:
- Asian American Pacific Islander Faculty and Staff Association (AAPIFSA)
- Black Faculty and Staff Association (BFSA)
- Researchers and Critical Educators (RACE)
- Chicano/Latino Faculty and Staff Association (CLFSA)
- Pride Alliance (LGBTQ Faculty and Staff Association)
- Undocumented and Ally Faculty and Staff Association (UAFSA)
- Veterans Staff and Faculty Association (VSFA)

DIEP hosted bi-monthly meetings with faculty and staff associations, which included leaders of various groups to discuss pressing issues raised among their membership. The office also hosted two welcome back events for the associations to provide an opportunity to recruit new members, raise awareness about the associations in the campus community, and foster coalition building between the groups.

Recognition of the Cultural Heritage Months
In partnership with the President’s office and various campus groups, DIEP helped to facilitate events recognizing the different cultural months for the campus community. As recognized by the Library of Congress, these included events for Hispanic/Latinx Heritage Month; LGBTQ History Month; Indigenous/Native American Heritage Month; and Black History Month. Due the limitations on in-person events following the COVID-19 pandemic, plans to host campus wide events recognizing Women’s History Month and Asian Pacific Islander Desi American (APIDA) Heritage Months were cancelled. In place of the campus events, the Division supported the many virtual events hosted across the campus community.

INSIGHT Into Diversity magazine’s 2020 Inspiring Affinity Group Award Recipient
The Undocumented and Ally Faculty and Staff Association (UAFSA) was named a recipient of INSIGHT into Diversity magazine’s 2020 Inspiring Affinity Group Award. This award tributes programs that are inspiring and encouraging higher education professionals to come to a campus like Cal State Fullerton because of the employee resource groups that offer mentoring, collaboration, social networking opportunities, and more.

Virtual Lunch Series– What Brings Us Together Goes Virtual
Due to COVID-19, the 2nd annual What Brings Us Together Luncheon (WBUT) transitioned into multiple CSUF virtual lunches, hosted by DIEP. The virtual lunches provided a space for all Titans to come together, share a meal, and dialogue while promoting diversity and community building. Guests of the Titan community were encouraged to Reach Higher and across differences by learning more about someone new.
TITANS TOGETHER: STRIVING FOR JUSTICE, EQUITY, AND INCLUSION

One Book, One CSUF Program
In a collaborative effort with Student Affairs, Academic Affairs, and the Office of the President, DIEP launched the inaugural One Book One CSUF program, a part of the Titans Together: Striving for Justice, Equity, and Inclusion initiative. This program is intended to create an inclusive campus environment through conversations and engagement among all members of our community. Opportunities for engagement will continue throughout the 2020-2021 academic year. The book chosen for this year was “The Book of Unknown Americans”.

Titans Together Website
In collaboration with Strategic Communications, revisions were made to the Titans Together website to serve as a hub for diversity initiatives. Updates included demographic data, a tagline and message from President Virjee, the One Book, One CSUF Program, Faculty and Staff Associations and information on the critical conversations and building community dialog series.

TOGETHER.FULLERTON.EDU

Building Community: Compassion and Resiliency in Turbulent Times Series
In partnership with the Faculty Development Center and the Diversity initiatives and Resource Center, DIEP co-hosted a dialogue series for the campus community in November – December 2019. The events were held in response to the campus climate concerns presented by Black Student Union and anti-black incidences that occurred in communities both locally and nationally. The four-part series featured sessions where 109 participants engaged in dialogue, shared their vision for a CSUF where we have achieved racial and ethnic inclusivity.

The Racial Equity Curriculum Taskforce
As part of the Titans Together: Striving for Justice, Equity, and Inclusion initiative, HRDI convened a task force on Racial Equity Curriculum in order to build a 90-minute learning module on racial equity and inclusion for the CSUF community. This 12-person taskforce made of both faculty and staff members has come together to create the content needed to complete the module. The module is currently available upon request.

CSUF Garners Second HEED Award
For the second year in a row, CSUF has received the INSIGHT Into Diversity’s HEED (Higher Education Excellence in Diversity) Award. CSUF is one of 95 institutions to receive this honor. The division’s DIEP unit has helped diversity focus and align campus wide diversity and inclusion efforts, as well as expanded the university’s commitment to recruiting and retaining a high-quality and diverse faculty and staff. HRDI continues to partner with campus diversity resource groups and continues to find ways to expand diversity and inclusion for all at CSUF.
DRIVING CHANGE

INNOVATION AT CSUF

Paperless Employee Evaluation Process for Staff and Management
In collaboration with the division of Information Technology, HRDI launched the paperless evaluation process for staff and management using Adobe Experience Manager (AEM), which allowed the entire process, including approvals and routing to occur online. A webpage and online training were developed and offered to assist with online evaluations. Eight virtual training sessions were offered to MPPs across campus.

Data Enhancements
HRDI collaborated with the Office of Assessment and Institutional Effectiveness (OAIE), providing data to assist in the creation of faculty and staff data dashboards. Data are disaggregated by division to include categories such as employee type, ethnicity, sex, and underrepresented status. These dashboards use the IPEDS HR staff reporting definition and can be found on the OAIE Institutional Research website.

Newly Redesigned HRDI Website
The HRDI website was redesigned to provide users with an updated, easy to navigate user experience. Webpages were reduced from over 600 pages to 250 pages. In addition, 14 new topics/pages were created such as work life balance, healthy living and wellness, emeritus status, manager resources, new employee resources, and more.

Customer Satisfaction Survey
The Office of the VP developed and distributed the first annual Customer Satisfaction Survey to campus employees using the Qualtrics survey platform. The survey was established to gather valuable employee feedback at Cal State Fullerton. The findings from this data provide insights into the employee experience and allow our division to identify opportunities for improvement, areas of success and how to prioritize the needs of our customers. Questions focused on determining overall satisfaction of the division, departments, and special projects. The survey was launched to campus in late April and completed in May. All reporting, including individual department report summaries were shared with the campus and posted online at:

HR.FULLERTON.EDU/SATISFACTION-SURVEY-RESULTS

COMMON HUMAN RESOURCES SYSTEM (CHRS)

The CSU selected the Common Human Resources System (CHRS) as a new core Human Resources tool to be implemented systemwide. This new system provides for a completely paperless process and will provide hiring and diversity data across all recruitments to assist with establishing and implementing benchmarks to increase faculty and staff retention. CSUF was selected to lead the system as an early adopter of CHRS core implementation.

CHRS Timeline

- CSUF selected to lead campus as an early adopter of CHRS Core Implementation for systemwide HR solution in fall 2018.

- CHRS Recruitment System was implemented in 2019 and stabilization was completed for staff and MPPs, tenure and tenure-track faculty, and emergency hire. The non-represented student assistant recruitment process was created.

- CHRS Recruiting website went live which highlighted info about the tool, training dates, training guides, key implementers, and more.

- CHRS Recruiting for students went live for student assistant positions. A CHRS student assistant user guide was also developed.

- CHRS Recruiting for for both faculty and staff recruitment went live, including staff/MPPs, emergency hires, tenure and tenure-track faculty, part-time employees, counselors, and athletics employees. The new system enabled a completely paperless process and will provide hiring and diversity data across all recruitments in future reporting.

- CHRS Recruiting for all employee categories on campus went live.

- CHRS business process guides, training materials, and training schedule for internal and external customer for CHRS Recruiting were distributed.

- Talent Acquisition created and implemented HR sign-in documents within the CHRS Recruiting.

- CHRS Core Project website launched

Titan of the Year Award
Laura Arce, Lecturer, Biological Science: Arce is a long-standing, part-time lecturer in biological science whose primary teaching assignments are upper-division courses in molecular and cancer biology, as well as a lower-division laboratory course for students accepted into the Research Careers Preparatory program that she directs. In addition to serving as the RCP program director, she conducts research on-campus and leads her own community outreach events. As the RCP director, she guides students as they engage in their first scientific research experience, preparing them for the next steps in their careers. RCP partners with the campus’ venerable Maximizing Access to Research Careers program to increase diversity in science. Arce’s work to mold young scientific researchers stretches beyond her department to include students from psychology, chemistry, and mathematics, reaching out to students’ family members in a way that makes a lasting impact.

Shelly Arsneault, Professor, Politics Admin & Justice: Professor Shelly Arsneault exemplifies the values of the Titan Excellence Award and demonstrates this through the creation and coordination of one of the university’s signature programs — the City Management Fellowship Program Opens in new window. Arsneault created CMFP in 2012 as a partnership between the Master of Public Administration program and the Orange County City Manager’s Association. CMFP provides professional, academic, and financial support to several MPA students each year who demonstrate a commitment to public service and desire a career in city management. Each student is paired with a city manager mentor, and the students attend a series of workshops conducted by them. Arsneault’s efforts have built community for the MPA program, its alumni and with the city managers of Orange County.

Alisha Brown, Director of Total Wellness, HRDI; As director of HRDI’s Total Wellness program, Brown is a passionate leader who has taken her team and its message to new heights, building a healthier campus community through enthusiastic service and outreach. Brown’s efforts have provided a multitude of programs and events for students, staff and faculty to learn more about their health and improve their well-being, such as Healthy Campus Week and the annual Health and Wellness Expo to name a few. Brown is at the center of these efforts, and her continuous hard work, creativity and inspiration have been key to their realization and success.

WHAT'S TO COME

LOOKING AHEAD

Campus Walking Path
The Total Wellness team is working with facilities to create a walking path with mile markers on campus. The Total Wellness team secured a $20,000 donation from St. Jude’s to fund the creation of the mile markers on this walking path.

360 Review Process
Diversity, Inclusion and Equity Programs, in partnership with leadership from Labor Employee Relations developed and tested the MPP 360° Feedback Assessment. This assessment program has been built from the ground up to fit the CSUF community best. The assessment was designed for each MPP level around the CSUF MPP core competencies and is a helpful tool for managers to obtain this understanding and for a department to show that it supports employee development. The 360 measures MPP strengths and development needs through feedback provided by the MPP, their supervisor, colleagues, direct reports, peers, and others. The program will be fully launched in 2020-2021.

Leadership Development
The MPP Core Competencies will continue to assist in tailoring professional development for leadership. HRDI will be launching the MPP Fundamentals Program and HRDI Symposium in 2021. Using the MPP core competencies as a guide, this event will feature robust workshops for managers and leads.

Paperless Forms
In collaboration with IT, HRDI will continue to convert paper HR forms to electronic forms using the new product, Adobe Experience Manager (AEM) for an end goal of a completely paperless process where possible. This year all management and staff evaluation forms went paperless with workflow routing. The campus feedback on these paperless evaluations will help improve these forms and new forms being developed.

Truth, Racial Healing & Transformation (TRHT) Campus Center
Diversity, Inclusion and Equity Programs applied for and were accepted to develop a Truth, Racial Healing & Transformation (TRHT) Campus Center. The center prepares the next generation of strategic leaders and thinkers to break down racial hierarchies and dismantle the belief in the hierarchy of human value.
